JACK CROSS.

A SHORT SKETCH OF HIS VALUABLE LIFE.

A Man Who Has Known Him From Childhood Tells What He Knows.

A CHARITABLE MAN.

BRECKENRIDGE, Ky., August 14, 1903.—When I was 21 years old there lived in the town of Cloverport a boy about nine years of age, struggling with the world to earn a living. That boy was Jack Cross. Capt. Jim Morehead, a young lawyer who lived there at that time, seeing something attractive in young Cross took him in his office, cared for him and taught him to write in English, branched, and said that some day he would make his mark.

In 1860, when our civil war was burning upon us and Capt. Morehead raised a company to go South, Jack was under eighteen years of age, but he enlisted and for more than four long years he followed and fought with his father and brother. He was killed at Antietam. When our flag was furled at Appomattox he returned to Cloverport, the pacesetter of nothing but an old gray suit and twenty-five cents in money, with no government to pension him.

There was nothing to do but to face the world like a man. And at it he went. With a clear head and a steady heart he pushed a way inch by inch and step by step to fame and fortune, and now whatever is his he obtained in and around his native town and county—seven his honored wife was raised in Cloverport. Jack has been a true to Democracy as the needle to the pole, always and his life's path when in the hands of his time and his money, never asking for it at his hands. It is true that, recognizing his merits and qualifications, the President made him better known to the people and the Governor made him Adjutant-General. He has filled both positions honorably. He now asks for the first time in his life an offer at the hands of his party. Will the Democrats see him defeat by a man from another county? I don't think it. At any rate Bewleyville will not cast her right for Jack Cross. Young men of Breckinridge county, usually a candidate for office would you go to Nevada and ask Richardson for a vote, or would you say, "Mr. Cross, I want your vote and influence?" Really, usually and politically he is the equal of his opponents. His purse has been opened quick when asked to relieve the poor, or to assist in any way the people of his county.

I write this letter because I have been voting the Democratic ticket forty-one years and I never knew in all that time, less reason for not supporting your own countyman. You jeopardize your Legislative candidates also. My Democratic friends, you had better reflect seriously before you vote against Jack Cross.

Little vegetable health products: DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure malarias disorders and regulate the stomach and bowels, which prevent headache and dizziness. A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, and Witt & Meador, Harlinsburg.

The great nervous remedy and health restorer gives the complexion a glow of health. Our 5 cent rubbing liniment. Sals's.

TOBINSPOUT.

Mr. Charles Hyde is on the sick list. Mr. Chas. Elmore is very ill of fever. A very nice rain visited the bottom Friday evening.

Mr. Everett Cockrell has purchased a forty-dollar bicycle.

Mr. J. D. Cockrell, wife and son have returned from Illinois.

Mr. Joel Miller, of Cloverport, is visiting his grandson, Mr. John Allen.

Miss Grace Allen, of Louisville, is the guest of her cousin, Mary Groves.

Mrs. W. Ashby and Miss May Tate, of near Cloverport, paid Mrs. Cassius Barnes a very pleasant call Sunday evening.

Stop wasting your money on Tobacco and Ropin. Brace up! Be a man! Hille's Chloride of Gold Tablets will cure you. All leading druggists sell them.

The Spring Chickens Again.

Heavy Tragedian (at railway hotel)—Prithie, landlady, dwell there within the precincts of this lamentable machinist? Landlady—A machinist? Yes, yes, yes. Tragedian—Then take to him his bill of many springs. Bid him wrench another three iron, and then, for our enjoyment, to chase him from his sun-bathing room, for we would dine soon—and pray, you do it quickly. You peas you need not carry, for we can swallow with devious management, or as they would say, "swallow."

Ignorance of the merits of DeWitt's Little Early Risers is a misfortune. These little pills regulate the liver, cure headache, dyspepsia, bad breath, constipation and biliousness. A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, and Witt & Meador, Harlinsburg.

Too Tempting.

"I think, Willie," said his father, who had been looking through the new house, "I shall give you one of the rooms at the other end of the building."

"What's the matter with this one?" inquired Willie, anxiously.

The matter, my son, rejoined the experienced parent, his left eyelid coming slowly down over the eye, "is that the window opens out on the kitchen roof, the coal shed is close to the door, and this is the circus season."—Chicago Tribune.

Faith may move mountains, but one has not moved in this section for a long time—but our great faith in DeWitt's Little Early Risers is not shaken.

Another jolly crowd dined with Mrs. Joe Glascock Thursday.

Rev. Emmet Glascock is in Louisville having his throat treated.

Gray Hart, who was bitten by a dog last week, is rapidly improving.

Dr. Napper, the "pill man," of Stephenson, was here this week.

Mr. Harold began his school last Monday at Parson's school house.

Mr. Joe Parsons and family spent last Sunday at Mr. Tom Merce's.

Mr. Harold began his school last Monday at Parson's school house.

Miss Lina Parsons has returned from a visit to her brother in Litchfield.

Mr. Harold began his school last Monday at Parson's school house.

Mr. George Heyser and family passed through town Sunday to the burying.

One brother has been here but some of the larger crops are left for another.

Mrs. Gibbs and son, of Litchfield, were at Mr. Huff's Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. George Glascock and daughter, Miss, were in Harlinsburg Monday.

Rev. Metcalfe and Mrs. Coker were in Harlinsburg Wednesday and Thursday.

After spending several weeks at home they returned to Litchfield.

Mr. L. Lampton has returned to Litchfield.

Another picnic here last Saturday, but the usual quiet was disturbed by a heated discussion between Messrs. Jones, Str., and Nace Coon, which resulted in blows. We are glad we were not present but learn from good authority that "politeness and whisky were the cause of the disturbance."

Don'tless it would interest some of your readers to hear from their absent pastor, Rev. Cundiff. He is now attending the conference at Nashville, Tenn.

The Waco meeting resulted in three hundred and twenty conversions and sanctifications. Thousands were present and thousands were baptized.

They were on the grounds, Rev. Cundiff preached one day. The preachers from Kentucky were Bro. H. C. Morrison, W. P. Galloway, R. T. Williams, J. A. Caudin and C. F. Williams. Dr. Galloway conducted the Bible readings, while Dr. Rinehart led the singing. By request Rev. Cundiff remained over at the city several days preaching in the largest church.

Two gentlemen, (7) from Grayson county came over in a spring wagon Tuesday evening with a mysterious looking load. We learn that the box contained ten gallons of whisky in jugs. The men quickly sold three gallons and hid the remainder. They spent the night at a house in the neighborhood. In the morning they discovered that their whisky and all had mysteriously disappeared during the night. That was good! Perhaps a few more such lessons would convert the men that they had better day at home and attend to their own business. Not meaning to dictate but we think our readers could find work here as whisky is being sold by some one almost constantly.

Mr. Deanshow—How did you know I was coming to-night Tommy?

Tommy—Cause you told the girl to go down to Bulter's and get some of that Crude carbolic acid. He said the house will have to be disinfectant after you left to-night.

We could not improve the quality if we could see the price. DeWitt's Little Early Risers is the best sale that experience can produce, or that money can buy. A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, and Witt & Meador, Harlinsburg.

A Long Head.

"But you are talking considerable risk in letting your men one two or three weeks' head."

"Yes, there is some risk," answered the boarding house keeper. "But, when you see they work so hard so that they get their appetite to save money in the long run."—Quips.

Recommended by all physicians—Crude carbolic acid for disinfecting purposes. Sals's.

A Good Fit.

Mr. Haywood—No, I don't want that coat. It is too big for me.

Some attractions were here last week, and some of our inhabitants had never seen any one "heat the horses," they were highly delighted with the sight.

Mrs. Will Tom Cannon gave a dining this week to Mrs. Frank Compton and children, Mrs. Sam Parsons and children, Mrs. Joe Merce and Mrs. Horace Hunter.

News has reached us that Dr. C. L. Robertson, of Colorado, formerly of this place, is at his old home in Davison county, and is expected here soon to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. Buchanan, a Baptist divine, treated us to an excellent discourse last Sunday afternoon. We are in hopes that he can soon redeem his promise and give us the "several days meeting."

We stated some time back that Rev. Harold had been called by "one side" of the Baptist church here, but as he has failed to put in his appearance it seems that we were mistaken.

It is quite amusing to watch Mr. Geo. Glascock when he comes to the covered bridge. He takes his horse out and leads them across, then pulls his spring wagon across, hitches up and goes on his way rejoicing.

Lost, strayed or stolen.—Mr. J. Sisk Mercer. That seed of him he was on his way to Litchfield to attend the Institute. Knowing that he has a penchant for pretty "school marm's" it is feared that one has persuaded him to elope.

Mr. Geo. Heyser, of Eveleigh, left this week for Conway, where he will again lecture in the dry goods business. The day after tomorrow Mr. Heyser, for when it comes to paying he represents Mr. Gilsa church. Mr. M. Roberts, of Litchfield, bought out Mr. Heyser.

All here were very much grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. Lina Heyser. She was a former resident of this place and "none here but to praise her."

Quite a crowd from here went to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lina Heyser. The burial had taken place on Sunday.

Mr. Neal Cannon's fine cow that was crippled last week had to be shot Monday. The cow was not so much as the general impression is that the cow was crippled by some one striking her, either intentionally or accidentally, but the cow was very near by on which she could have been.

IT IS FALSE

Like All The Other Reports. The Appointment Is Made to the W. A. H.

The statement in the Harlinsburg Plaindealer that "Collector Powers has appointed men in every county are honest and freeholders" is not only false, but the fact that it was true must have been known by the editor when he wrote it. There are twenty counties in the district in which there have been no appointments of men to collect taxes, and in some of these counties the men who are appointed are not honest and freeholders, and in some of these counties the men who are appointed are not honest and freeholders, and in some of these counties the men who are appointed are not honest and freeholders.

We venture the prediction that not one single applicant for Federal office under Collector Powers has ever been asked the question by that official whether he was for or against Capt. Gross. If the Plaindealer is against Gross it is a perfect right to say, but we question the right of any paper to make wholesale charges without foundation against persons who are widely disconnected from the race. Collector Powers has had his hands entirely full attending to his own business, and we feel certain that the Plaindealer cannot point to a single individual or instance wherein Collector Powers has violated the appointment law.

If you can afford to be annoyed by sick headache and constipation, don't use DeWitt's Little Early Risers for these little pills will cure them. A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, and Witt & Meador, Harlinsburg.

Friendship.

"I don't think you treat Gopal heart kindly."

"How is that?"

"You have money from him and never repay it. You take up his time when he is busy, and use his office as if it were his own."

"He's a friend of mine. You surely don't think I would turn any body that way who wasn't a friend?"

Duba Hardin Hart.
Cuba Hardin Hart, son of W. H. Hardin, formerly of Leoburg this county, was playing with another boy named Dick Burnett in Owensboro last Saturday when he and his companion were both severely hurt. Burnett was chasing Hart and fell as he tried to catch him, breaking his collar bone and skinning and cutting his head. He fell on Hart's heels and this threw him to the ground, the fall bruising him about the body and head severely.
